Questions 1-5

Dear Jenny,

Long time no see! How is your life in America? I miss you very much.

Although you have left Taiwan for the States several months ago, I still appreciate the moments we shared together. Do you remember the last Chinese New Year we spent in Mt Ali? It was cold but our hearts were warm. In order to see the famous sunrise, we woke up early. Luckily, there was no cloud and we were able to see the sun coming up from behind the mountains. The view was so grand that we both held our breath and could not utter a word.

Now that you are so far away, I wonder whether you have made any new friends. Life in a foreign country must be tough. The Chinese New Year is drawing near, and how are you planning to celebrate your holiday? Oh, I forgot!! Americans don't celebrate Chinese New Year. Anyway, I will send my best wishes to you, hoping that you can come back to me soon, so we can go to Taipei to visit the museum. Happy holiday to you!

Sincerely yours,
Jessica

Questions 6-10

Kimmie was visiting her Aunt Jane at the beach. She wanted to build a sand castle on the beach. Aunt Jane told her it was too sunny. Aunt Jane said Kimmie could only go if she had a hat. Kimmie didn't have a hat. Aunt Jane had a lot of hats. Aunt Jane said that Kimmie could borrow one of hers, since bigger hats were better anyway. Kimmie tried on four hats. The pink one was really pretty, but it had a big bow. The ribbons kept going into Kimmie's eyes. That would not be good for building a sand castle.

The blue hat was too fancy. Kimmie did not like that hat at all. The red hat was nice, but it had flowers on it. Kimmie was afraid the flowers would get dirty.

Then, Kimmie saw a big straw hat with a short red ribbon on it. The bow was not too droopy. The hat was not too fancy. It would be easy to clean. Kimmie knew it was the perfect hat.

Q6. Where was Kimmie?    A. at the store    B. at the beach    C. at school    D. at home

Q7. Who was Kimmie visiting?    A. her aunt    B. her grandparents    C. her friends    D. her sister

Questions 21-23

Global warming is changing the world in many ways. We could already see this with glaciers. These are big sheets of ice on land like frozen rivers. There used to be many glaciers in the world. But now a lot of the ice is melting as the weather gets warmer. Scientists report that glaciers are melting throughout the world. Global warming is also changing Antarctica, the ice covered continent at the South Pole. Warmer temperatures may be killing animals and birds that live in Antarctica. Animals and birds such as whales, penguins and seals have adapted to the cold and icy temperature in Antarctica. However, as the temperature in Antarctica gets warmer, they're having trouble surviving. For example, penguins may be slowly dying off because the tiny sea animals which they eat have been killed by the warmer temperatures.

Q21. What is happening to the glaciers in the world now?

- A. They are melting as the weather gets warmer.      B. They are frozen like the rivers.
C. They are drowning the animals in Antarctica.      D. They become more and more.

Q22. Which animal is not mentioned in this passage?      A. Whales.      B. Penguins.      C. Seals.      D. Giraffes.

Q23. Why are the penguins dying off?

- A. Ice covers the continent at the South Pole.
B. The glaciers are melting.
C. The tiny sea animals they eat are being killed by the warmer temperatures.
D. They haven't adapted to the cold and icy temperature.
